POST-GRADUATE COURSE of CHIROPRACTIC INSTRUCTION

More than a technique—
the Gonstead Course is a COMPLETE COMPREHENSIVE ALL-INCLUSIVE

POST-GRADUATE COURSE
of instruction in:

- 1 CHIROPRACTIC TECHNIQUE
- 2 PATIENT MANAGEMENT
- 3 OFFICE PROCEDURE

Thus far, we have emphasized the importance of finding the nerve pressure and correcting it. And, rightly so, because without an effective and scientific method for finding the difficulty and alleviating the problem, there can be no lasting chiropractic results.

But, chiropractic care does not end there. And, neither does the Gonstead system.

The Gonstead concept in chiropractic is treatment of the whole man. And toward that end the Gonstead instructive class sessions strive to bring together, to correlate, and to coordinate ALL fields of knowledge relative to chiropractic care of the spine and the whole man. Gonstead post-graduate courses of instruction are for the chiropractor who already knows something about the spine, but wants to know more—a lot more.
